President's Welcome

On behalf of our 1,100-plus members, welcome to the new edition of our Membership Directory and Community Guide. It is published annually for our members, local residents and potential newcomers in hopes that its content will help you when doing business here.

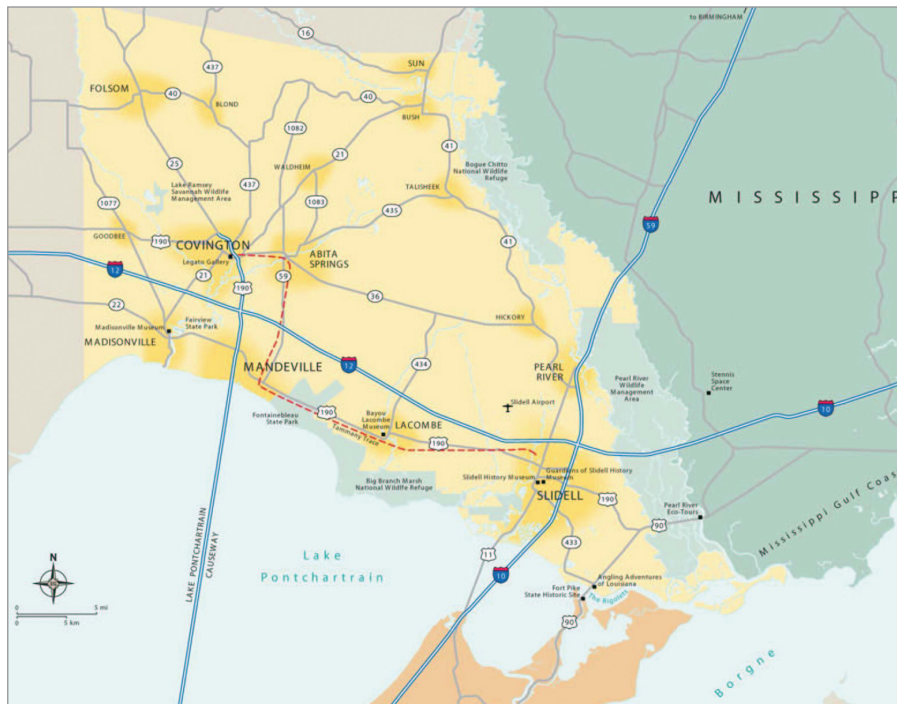

Our Chamber's energies are focused on working with the business community here on the Northshore to address their needs and concerns in the area of smart growth planning, transportation infrastructure, insurance issues, property taxes, workforce development and housing. We continue to facilitate and open avenues of discussion among elected, civic and business leaders to make optimum use of the inherent strengths and opportunities within reach.

We are building on a foundation established over the past decade to achieve goals necessary for growth and success as a parish and key contributor to the economic vitality of the super region inclusive of Greater New Orleans, Greater Baton Rouge, and the Northshore cities and communities. As recent census numbers reveal, we have grown in population and are destined to continue that growth well into the next two decades.

We enjoy the benefits of being next door to one of the most culturally rich cities in the country. We recognize that where we live is a jewel to be treasured by residents and visitors alike. We do not take for granted our rivers, Lake Pontchartrain, their beautiful waterfronts, Tammany Trace, parks, outstanding public school system and shopping areas, to name just a few of the gems of our communities. Not least among those gems are our businesses. Large and small, new and long-standing, they provide a backbone and enable our outstanding quality of life. It is our mission to be their voice, to provide them support and to be a leader in building coalitions.

It is our committed members that enable us to continue to provide these resources and services. This Guide is just one of the many benefits of membership. In the following pages you will find information on our networking and professional development opportunities. We share our mission, our vision and our values. Testimonials, committee summaries and event photos tell our stories. All of our programs are based on member input, designed to help our member businesses grow and succeed.

There are philosophical sayings that ring true when it comes to the benefits of being involved, whether you are a regular attendee of networking events,

St. Tammany Parish is situated between Tangipahoa and Washington parishes to the west and north, respectively, and bordered by Mississippi to the east. The region is referred to as the North Shore because it sits on the northern shore of Lake Pontchartrain, with New Orleans to the south.

a committee member or chairman, or leader on our Board. The saying is: "In the end it is all about relationships." Involvement not only broadens your understanding of a range of issues, but enables you to develop new business and, in some cases, personal relationships. I encourage our members to resolve to get involved. Build new relationships while making a difference in your community, and growing your business!

On behalf of our hardworking Board of Directors and staff, I thank our long-time Chamber members for your confidence and congratulate you on your decision to be a member. Those businesses that have been members for more than 10 years are recognized on pages 22-25. To our new and prospective members, residents and newcomers, I encourage you to learn more about us, and to Think Chamber First when doing business in our communities.

Letter from the Chairman of the Board

I am humbled to serve as a legacy chairman, following in the footsteps of my now retired partners, Sam Fauntleroy, who was chairman in 2003, and Ken Latham, who was the then-Covington Chamber Chairman in the 90s. As such, I have made myself aware of the history of our Chamber, its foundation, its evolution, its challenges over the years as population and business growth surged, political impacts, the ebbs and flows of the economy, recovery and rebuilding post-Katrina.

The team effort that led to our 5-star accreditation is not something to rest our laurels upon. This prestigious honor puts us among the top one percent of chambers nationwide. It is something to be maintained as we face the ongoing evolution of our community as a shining star on its own in the super-region deemed as New Orleans, Baton Rouge and the Northshore.

This is an exciting and challenging time for our Chamber and we, the staff and board, welcome the opportunity. We are all aware of our nation's economic climate, however, I am optimistic about our future because of the many unique and wonderful benefits in St. Tammany Parish. I will mention some of those opportunities here.

I am grateful to live in a parish where challenge and partnerships between private and public entities have the ability to promote spirited dialogue and encourage advantageous solutions where there is one common goal — a robust, exemplary and exceptional public school system that benefits our children's learning not just for today — but create future adults equipped with the education and life skills to make our parish a wonderful place to live and prosper.

We will maintain our partnership with the Northshore Healthcare Alliance. It provides training avenues in health care technology and clinical jobs for our young people to support our local world-class health care facilities.

We have taken our outreach in the public policy arena to a new level. Our candidate forums, open to all, are instrumental in allowing all citizens to voice their questions directly to those with the courage to run for public service. We created and encourage use of our new website and web portal — www.standupsttammany.com — for our members and citizens to stay informed on issues and elections important to St. Tammany and our region.

We have incredible Chamber board leaders to thank for pushing this business advocacy and transparency and intend to continue to provide a strong voice of and to business.

Our collaborative role in the Northshore Legislative Alliance with East St. Tammany and the Northshore Business Council will also continue. We are grateful for and will work very closely with our new parish president and council to promote economic development and political issues that directly affect our members and citizens. Future jobs and upgrading standards of living are at stake, and the Chamber is ready to be accountable.

We are entering a new era. The NRPs — our young professionals group — is emerging and merging. We have new political leadership at the city, parish and legislative levels. State and federal budget issues are impacting small businesses across the country including here in St. Tammany West. A strong chamber is crucial to representing their needs.

My grandparents' generation has been called the Greatest Generation. I want to be a part of the Grateful Generation through Chamber:

- Grateful for our business community
- Grateful for ethical, abundant and exemplary community service, volunteerism and leadership
- Grateful for the ability to, through one action or funding dollar at a time, lead the Chamber to make our community the finest place to live and work not just for this generation but for our children and grandchildren.

When I joined the architecture firm Fauntleroy & Latham in 1997, our founders who both have served as Chamber chairmen as well, challenged me to get involved in community groups to both better our firm and give back, but mostly to better my own personal growth. Their guidance, stewardship, support and insight led me to my role in continuing our firm's legacy of Chamber leadership and service. I do not take this role or honor lightly. In fact, I welcome the opportunity to pass on the torch to other future leaders in our firm. For all of this and more, I am grateful.

Fully embracing this opportunity to serve our Chamber as chairman, together with my fellow board members and Chamber staff, we pledge to continue the incredible legacy of the former leaders, to grow and prosper, and to uphold the foundation of excellence for our members and leaders of tomorrow.

5 Stars

Monique Thierry, Executive Director, Southwest/South Central Region US Chamber of Commerce presents our 5-Star Accreditation to Kieran Weldon, Lisa Blossman and Lacey Toledano.

Chamber awarded 5-star Accreditation by U.S. Chamber of Commerce

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce board of directors approved our 5-Star Accreditation earlier this year. Less than 100 of the 7,000 chambers throughout our country can boast this remarkable achievement.

Accreditation is not a mandatory designation, it is a choice. The only national program recognizing chambers for their effective organizational procedures and community involvement, accreditation allowed us to renew, improve and promote our sound business practices, policies, and procedures. Local chambers are rated Accredited, 3-Stars, 4-Stars, or 5-Stars. State chambers are recognized as either Accredited State Chamber or Accredited State Chamber with Distinction. The final determination is made by the Accrediting Board, a committee of U.S. Chamber board members and chamber executives from across the country.

While many effective chambers choose not to even endure the process, this was our third accreditation process, completed every five years. Our board, committees and staff strive daily in the pursuit of excellence. The result of this daily commitment to provide business support and a strong voice of business is evident since we reached our goal to achieve the highest rating of five stars.

In a truly team effort, our staff and board leaders spent countless hours completing the lengthy and detailed application. Our task: demonstrate competency in nine core areas ranging from organization governance, finance and governmental affairs to communications, technology and facilities.

Several board leaders contributed to update our bylaws, communications plan, ensure our governmental affairs programs were up to date and effective, our use of technology and plan to keep it up to date, and review our sound financial policies. The development of our governmental affairs portal, www.standupsttammany.com is a new tool that is enabling more grassroots involvement and input, a key component in accredited chambers.

Emily Rivers Miller oversaw this special accreditation project. She delved into our files to back up our answers and ensured all were accurate and complete. Emily's loyalty to us after four years of Chamber experience as communications coordinator, her focus and her thoroughness were all instrumental to getting us to five stars.

Our 2011 board chairman, Lisa Blossman, and our 2012 chairman, Kieran Weldon, offered countless hours of their leadership ability, experience and courageous decision making, as well as positive encouragement as we worked toward our 5-star goal.

Each and every Chamber member as well as each and every resident of Mandeville, Covington and our St. Tammany West communities, should be extraordinarily proud of this milestone. For details, please visit our website at www.sttammany.com and click on the 5-Star Accreditation logo.

Chamber Vision

Vision

St. Tammany Parish and the region will experience positive planned growth and development resulting from the support and leadership of the Chamber and its members, building on respect for and retention of St. Tammany's unique qualities that are the basis of its strength.

Mission Statement

Our mission is to strengthen the business climate of West St. Tammany by promoting the community's continued development and enhancing the economic vitality of the region. We support our member businesses in a variety of ways, providing peer-to-peer networking opportunities, educating the public at large on issues of importance and advocating for favorable laws within the state legislature.

Values Statement — V.O.I.C.E.

Visionary Leadership

We are the leading business advocate in our community, shaping policy, initiating collaborative partnerships and are the champions of economic development and business growth. We will lead with vision, inspiration, innovation and enthusiasm.

Organizational Integrity

We will operate with the highest level of trust and integrity, delivering measurable results for the betterment of our economy and our members.

Infrastructure and Education

The STWCC recognizes that a strong community infrastructure, including but not limited to education, work force training, transportation and health care, is essential to creating and promoting a strong economic development climate.

Communication

We are committed to effective, honest and respectful communication to foster an environment favorable to positive economic growth and will clearly and consistently promote the STWCC mission, vision, priorities and actions.

Experience and Value

The STWCC will deliver high-quality member services that align with its mission, vision and values to provide an outstanding "Member Experience" in which value exceeds investment.

10 Reasons to join The Chamber

To gain customers: A recent study shows that consumers are 63 percent more likely to buy from a company that is a Chamber member.

To grow the economic pie so that your slice gets bigger.

To strengthen the local economy by attracting jobs and helping existing companies expand.

To gain the chance to conduct business to business (B2B) and to share business ideas, problems and opportunities.

To be part of an elite group (according to a recent study): Chamber-member companies have better credit ratings and better business practices than the average business.

To help strengthen the educational, cultural, recreational and medical systems in our community.

To recommend solutions to keep community infrastructure (transportation, water, environment) up to date.

To support programs that improve the image of our community and our quality of life.

To strengthen the voice of St. Tammany business in the halls of government, and to create and maintain an atmosphere where commerce can occur.

10

To ensure business receives reasonable and balanced treatment on government regulation and taxation.

Chamber Committees

Ambassadors

Our Ambassadors are an enthusiastic group whose contribution to the Chamber is critical to ongoing communication with our membership. They serve as our public relations arm by calling on our members to update them on the Chamber's current activities, policies and special events, as well as asking how the Chamber can better serve them. Ambassadors also serve as official greeters at monthly luncheons and business after hours events to help new members and first-time attendees feel more at ease and to introduce them to other members.

Communications

The Communications Committee helps shape the Chamber message, implements our communications and marketing plan, and guides our use of and investment in technology to convey this message to members and the general public. They examine the minutes and compile information from all other committee happenings to shape our messages on our social media pages, website and newspaper and magazine articles. The Communications Committee strives to maintain clear channels of communication with the media, the public, governmental leaders, other organizations in the region and especially with the Chamber membership.

Cultural Economy

Our greatest economic engine is our people — the people of St. Tammany Parish. They project, support and earnestly work toward enabling an unrivaled quality of life. Our restaurants, festivals, historic homes, legendary jazz halls, waterways and education system are just a few reasons we are culturally strong, sound and sought after. We are home to some of the nation's largest corporations gravitated by our quality, our culture and our sustainability. The Cultural Economy Committee hosts an annual luncheon each year to spotlight local artists, musicians, celebrity chefs, the award-winning ProStart Culinary Program and this year will debut its newest community initiative — "Little Rembrandts." The committee is partnering with the St. Tammany Public School Board to offer teachable moments with Lyon Elementary School 3rd Grade art students. Their artwork will then be displayed throughout local municipal buildings, area hospitals and schools.

Chamber Committees

Governmental Affairs

Our Chamber is the “Voice of Business,” dedicated not only to promoting and supporting business development, but also to representing our business community at local, state and federal levels. The Governmental Affairs Committee is the working group of this operation. This committee keeps our members aware of government actions and gives them an opportunity to hear from a variety of elected officials who are often guest speakers at meetings and events. They host candidate forums and ensure our entire membership remains informed on issues important to their bottom line. This year they introduced our governmental affairs web portal that keeps members up to date on timely issues at the local, state and federal levels. Learn more at www.standupsttammany.org.

Northshore Legislative Alliance (NLA)

The Northshore Legislative Alliance is a collaborative effort among our own Chamber, the East St. Tammany Chamber and the Northshore Business Council. This public policy partnership moves into its sixth year of advocacy efforts to improve the business climate. Dino

Paternostro, president of government relations firm LegisLink, has led the NLA, serving as the Legislative Advocate to advance the group’s issues during the legislative process. This past year the NLA actively tracked 73 bills ranging from education and retirement reforms to economic development and parish level priorities. The role of the NLA is to “shape what might be instead of serving what is,” said Shelby LaSalle, NLA Chair.

Northshore Healthcare Alliance (NHA)

The Northshore Healthcare Alliance (formerly known as the St. Tammany Healthcare Alliance) was formed in 2005 through the leadership and vision of our Chamber. The NHA is a coalition of key stakeholders working together to implement a strategic plan to effectively meet the demand for skilled healthcare workers on the Northshore. Executive members of the NHA include the CEOs of the following: CommCare Corp.,

Fairway Medical Surgical Hospital, Lakeview Regional Medical Center, Louisiana Medical Center and Heart Hospital, North Oaks Health System, Ochsner Health System, Slidell Memorial Hospital, St. Tammany Parish Hospital and St. Tammany East and West Chambers of Commerce.

Chamber Committees

Northshore Rising Professionals (NRP)

The Northshore Rising Professionals is a committee of the St Tammany West Chamber of Commerce whose goal is to bring young professionals together to engage with one another and the business, political, and community leadership to improve our community. Their projects are designed to support commerce and a high quality of life for our citizens. They boast more than 60 active members. In the summer of 2011 they introduced a new program for high school seniors, Leaders of Tomorrow. The students are led in a two-week study course led by NRP members and other professionals and entrepreneurs about their professions, knowledge, discipline and skills needed to survive and succeed, and an overall introduction to the working world after high school and post-secondary education.

Small Business Advisory Council (SBAC)

Of the Chamber's 1,100-plus members, 89 percent are small businesses. As such, the efforts of our Small Business Advisory Council are invaluable to these members. The SBAC assists through job fairs, recognition awards and trade shows. They keep abreast of trends and issues affecting the small business community to plan monthly seminars, workshops and timely training sessions on topics of interest. A new project in 2012 was orienting new Chamber members to encourage them to take most advantage of membership benefits.

Talk of the Towns

Covington

Art, government, nature and commerce converge at the point of three rivers known as Covington. Hub of the Abita, Bogue Falaya and Tchefuncte rivers, Covington became known as the official port of St. Tammany in the late 1800s. Today, it is the seat of St. Tammany Parish government, as well as an artist's haven boasting eclectic shopping and sidewalk cafes seasoned with turn-of-the-century charm.

The city's well-defined historic business district is comprised of 28 oak-shaded squares with antique "ox lots" that provide off-street parking. Fine art galleries, antique shops, home furnishings stores and boutiques make downtown Covington a unique shopping district offering nostalgic respite and cutting edge flair.

Mandeville

As the host city of Lake Pontchartrain, this progressive community strives to make the most of its natural assets, while carefully planning and balancing growth. Sailboats and yachts are regular features on its lakefront horizon. Nearby Fontainebleau State Park offers residents the great outdoors in their own backyard.

In 1834 Bernard Xavier de Marigny de Mandeville bought 5,000 acres and founded the city of Mandeville. The city flourished when wealthy New Orleanians began to build resort communities along its lakefront in the 1800s. Upscale shopping districts and some of the best eateries around, make fashionable Mandeville a perfect setting for both stately and modest homes in magnificently designed subdivisions and gated communities.

Abita Springs

The area now known as Abita Springs was home to native Americans as far back as 2,200 years ago. The plentiful game, fish, spring water and ozone air made this area suitable for a comfortable life. In fact, the modern town was built around artesian spring wells that were long believed to have medicinal properties.

Today Abita Springs' charming downtown nestled against the Tammany Trace still invites visitors and residents to gather and enjoy refreshment, relaxation and a breath of fresh air.

Folsom

Located in the northernmost region of St. Tammany, Folsom offers a small-town lifestyle in the midst of expansive ranches, magnificent country estates and serene riverside retreats. Still a rural community, its rolling terrain supports a flourishing thoroughbred horse industry. Folsom is also the nursery center of Louisiana and home to the Global Wildlife Center, which will celebrate its 20th anniversary this year.

Madisonville

Home to the nationally recognized Lake Pontchartrain Basin Maritime Museum and host to the annual Wooden Boat Festival, Madisonville draws nautical devotees from across the country each fall. The town was originally named "Cokie," derived from the French word "coquille," which means shell.

In 1811 the name of the town was changed to honor President James Madison. Boasting eight buildings on the National Historic Register, Madisonville is a delightful riverfront town situated along the banks of the picturesque Tchefuncte River.

Chamber Awards

For over 14 years, the Chamber has presented two very prestigious awards, the Tammany Award and the Community Leadership Award. The winners have certainly worked hard to earn their success. They have contributed to our economy, our quality of life and have been inspirations for aspiring entrepreneurs. The Tammany Award was bestowed on two deserving winners this year.

The Tammany Award for Large Business was awarded to Netchex. Founded by two executives who previously worked in the payroll industry for a publicly traded firm, Will Boudreaux and Stuart Etheridge decided to change the experience of payroll outsourcing.

The Tammany Award for Small Business went to The Dakota Restaurant. In 1990 owner Kenny LaCour joined Chef Kim Kringle to create Dakota in Covington. A Covington native, LaCour has been well known by his loyal diners, along with his willingness to share his knowledge of food, cooking, and wine with others in his industry.

Our 2012 Community Leadership Award winner, Richard "Dick" Knight, has a most humble heart of gold. His professional resume touts over 42 years of service in a legal practice, in the fields of business and corporate law, estate planning, real estate and banking. Over the years Knight has been extremely active in the community, serving on the boards of St. Tammany Parish Hospital Foundation, Kenny Lacour of The Dakota Restaurant, Dick Knight, Community Leadership recipient, and Stuart Etheridge and Will Boudreaux, of Netchex.

Northshore Community Foundation which he currently chairs, Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra, Boy Scouts and Christwood Retirement Community, to name a few. His exemplary unselfish service is quite incredible across the board.

In addition, there are a plethora of businesses that contribute to the sense of place and quality of life in St. Tammany. Our Chamber strives to recognize and show appreciation to businesses that have greatly impressed fellow business people by seeking out nominations for our annual Business Appreciation Awards. •

U.S. Chamber stands up for small businesses

For the past 100 years, the U.S. Chamber has focused on the critical issues facing our nation's businesses and on policies that can strengthen America's future. As a member of the St. Tammany West Chamber, you receive membership in the U.S. Chamber, receiving sometimes-daily updates on federal issues that impact the ability to conduct commerce and your bottom line.

Louisiana Chambers work with the U.S. Chamber to continue building strong support for American free enterprise across the nation. Our state boasted the highest number of representatives at the U.S. Chamber's 100th anniversary celebration and annual Small Business Summit.

John Dussouy

Owner, Dussouy Insurance

The Chamber today is a thousand times better than when Dussouy Insurance first joined in 1994. It is a first class operation, accredited and a positive force in the community. More political activism was needed. It became a priority, and has been and continues to be handled in a positive manner. The leadership has built a solid foundation and brought relevance and true success to the Chamber. The Chamber is headed in the right direction for St. Tammany's future.

The success of my business depends on two things: respecting my loyal advertising clients and producing a quality product that engages their target market and provides a good return on their investment. I can control the quality of InsideNorthside and ensure delivery to the appropriate demographic. But I cannot ensure the economic environment that allows my clients to thrive. The Chamber supports, protects and fosters the growth of Inside Northside and our clients' companies by working for economic vitality in our region and by providing a business community that gives us opportunities to network with other members.

Now offering international travel opportunities

In this ever-expanding global economy, Chambers throughout the United States are now offering members first-hand learning opportunities about international economic cultures. These trips are not only a great way to educate business leaders about cultural differences among other countries, but they offer an opportunity to open doors for potential trade opportunities and business relationships.

The American Chamber of Commerce board of directors has offered travel opportunities to China, Spain, India and other countries as an introduction to what these tours offer. Numerous Chambers have since offered tours to other countries, including Ireland, Greece, Turkey, Vietnam and others.

Our Chamber got on this bandwagon in 2011. A survey of our membership proved significant interest in both our offering and potentially traveling on international Chamber sponsored trips. Italy was the first choice destination among respondents. So, after more research and in cooperation with ABC Destinations, an experienced tour company recommended by chamber counterparts, we presented our first-ever international trip to Tuscany, Italy.

With a base hotel in Montecatini Terme, they explored such beautiful and historic areas as Florence, Siena and San Gimignano. Not only were there several business leaders that made the trip, but many took advantage of the incredible savings to travel with loved ones.

Based on the rave reviews of the first 35 travelers to Tuscany, we intend to continue up to two trips annually. Upcoming trips include a package to the Amalfi Coast of Italy in the Fall of 2012 and a scenic cruise down the Danube in the Spring of 2013.

The incredible offer to Amalfi includes roundtrip airfare from New Orleans, first-class hotel accommodations in Sorrento and day trips to Ravello, Pompeii and Naples with several meals included. Some optional tours are available, including a harbor cruise to Capri, a cooking tour in the countryside and a visit to a mozzarella cheese factory. It also offers an optional two-night Rome extension.

The Blue Danube Adventure features a cruise down the scenic and historic waterway, visiting four countries in nine days — Hungary, Slovakia, Austria and Germany. This cruise will take you into the heart of some of the most breathtaking scenery in Europe. The itinerary will transport you into the resurgent nations of Central Europe, with calls in the splendid cities of Budapest, Bratislava, Melk, Passau, Dürnstein and Vienna. Since you'll be traveling aboard a luxurious river boat, you'll need to unpack only once as you enjoy the unfolding views of the beautiful Danube from the comfort of a spacious cabin.

Chamber membership is not required and we invite everyone considering international travel to watch our website and Facebook page to see where we are going next. •

Chamber Events

Our Chamber offers numerous events to meet the various needs of our members as either attendees or sponsors. Bimonthly Member Orientations are the place to be to learn the purpose of each and answer the proverbial question: W.I.I.F.M? — or, What’s in it for me?

Our website also features a full description of all events and sponsorships: www.sttammany.com.

In a nutshell, our events are part of our business support programs. They provide networking, relationship building, opportunities to promote and grow your business-to-business contacts. Some provide educational opportunities in our ever-changing global economy’s offering of technology, products and services.

Our current three annual events are also non-dues revenue generators, vital to financing our ability to continue influencing positive change in our communities, and enable us to keep our small business members’ dues investments affordable. They include our annual Installation and Awards Banquet, EXPO and $10,000 Ticket to Paradise Raffle Party.

Taxes

Personal Income Taxes:

State income tax is based on a percentage of federal income tax liability. The deadline for state filing is May 15. For additional information, call the state Department of Revenue and Taxation at (985) 893-6277 or the federal internal Revenue Service at (800) 829-1040.

Property Tax:

Residential property is assessed at 10 percent of fair market value with a $7,500 homestead exemption. (In other words, you do not pay property taxes on the first $75,000 worth of property, only the amount above that figure).

Land and other classes of property are assessed at 15 percent of value. The tax assessor's office is located in the St. Tammany Justice Center, 701 N. Columbia Street, Suite 4, Covington or call (985) 809-8180 for more information.

as a condition to registering. To register, apply in person at the Registrar's Office in the St. Tammany Justice Center, 701 N. Columbia Street, Covington or apply online at www.stprov.org. For more information call (985) 809-5500.

Residency:

A resident is someone who has taken the necessary, common sense steps to live somewhere such as changing their driver's license, changing automobile registration, renting/buying a place to live or connecting telephone or electrical services. If you move to a rural area contact the U.S. Postal Service at (800) 275-8777 for mailbox installation requirements.

Information, please

Driver's License:

An out-of-state driver's license is valid for 30 days after establishing residency. To apply for a Louisiana driver's license, go to the Department of Motor Vehicles located at 1715 N. Causeway Blvd. in Mandeville. You will need to present your valid out-of-state license or certified copy of your driving record, a primary document to prove identity such as a birth certificate, valid passport or a military I.D., and Social Security Card. For more information on office hours, call (985) 624-4445.

Inspection Stickers:

Inspection stickers are due immediately upon changing vehicle titles. The vehicle can be taken to any official vehicle inspection station. You will need to present a Louisiana driver's license, vehicle registration certificate, license plate and proof of liability insurance. The inspections cost $10.

Vehicle Registration:

Changed vehicle registrations are required as soon as possible, but no more than 30 days after establishing residency. You will need your vehicle's registration paper and title issued by the state in which you previously resided, proof of liability insurance and the current mileage on your vehicle. For more information call the Department of Motor Vehicles at (225) 925-6146.

We encourage our members and all residents of St. Tammany to “Think Chamber First!” By that we mean, when you are ready to do business be it buy, bank, build, dine out think “who is a Chamber member?” and go there first! Please use this directory section before you do business locally! Note which businesses make our community better by being a Chamber member and patronize them first.

Visit our website at www.sttammany-chamber.org for even more contact information on our members, including fax numbers. And, Chamber members can log on to the Members Only section and view email addresses and member-to-member discounts as well.
